WRITING for the PROFESSIONS

Open Enrollment 2021
(remote course)

Summer Session I
Tue & Thu
11:00 am - 1:50 pm

How do you articulate your ideas and create your professional identity in your field?

This intensive writing course is designed to give upper-division and graduate students the opportunity to improve their writing and speaking on topics in their chosen field. Students research and write about current issues in their professions, practice articulating problems they hope to explore, and fashion resume, cover letters, and presentations.
